

54% of our participants are female

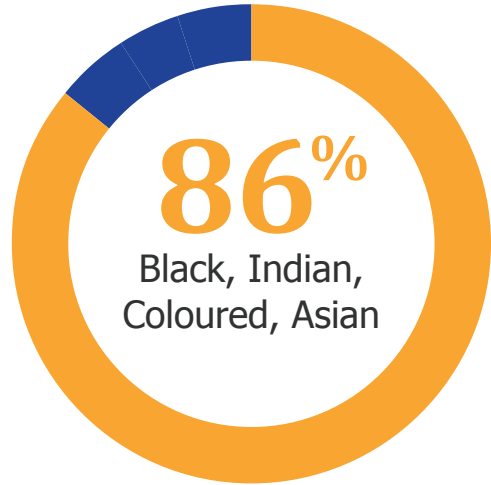

2300+

programme participants to date

~50 programmes run thus far

Two leading publications profiling innovative South African Social Enterprises: Disruptors and Disruptors 2

86%

Black, Indian, Coloured, Asian

The average participant owns 1,5 businesses. Effectively, we have impacted over

3600 businesses

International participants across SADC

Almost 17000

South Africans in full-time employment because of businesses that have benefitted from our interventions

R3.2bn

The total value of all revenue from the businesses that the EDA has worked with

Education diversity

Our programmes have impacted participants with no formal education through to participants with doctoral degrees.

50%

of beneficiaries are 35 years old or younger

Revenue and job impact after 1 year:

Revenue increased by

Staff increased by

10

The number of years of running the Social Entrepreneurship Programme

600+

delegates enrolled in SEP

Gordon Institute of Business Science

Entrepreneurship Development Academy